The Bluewater Dunes Ratepayers Association (BDRA) is an organization headed by an executive board of elected volunteers with the following objectives:

~to provide any and all important information affecting our residents

~to channel the concerns and suggestions of our members to local governments, municipal bodies and to other organizations with similar concerns and objectives

~to use our collective voice to insure the sustainable development and preservation of our neighbourhood and

~to foster positive, fun and friendly relationships in our unique and special community.
